AN EXCITING SEA-STORY! NOVELTY AFTER NOVELTY

The New York Weekly

For May 1, Now Ready,

For May 1, Now Ready,

A ND for sale by all News Dealers in the U. States and Canada. Will contain another new original story, entitled, "THE OCEAN WANDERER; or, ADVENTURES ON LAND AND SEA, in which the author depicts, in graphic style, the starting scenes and romantic adventures of life as a sailor before the mast. The narrative of the "OCEAN WANDERER" is a bold but truthful picture of the most exciting incidents in every quarter of the globe, in which are potrayed the chivalry, daring, freaks, follies and superstitions of the sailor; togetner with the tyrannies and brutalities to which he is too often subjected by the officers who command our vessels. Some of these scenes develope a refinement of cruelty and a systematic torture that cannot fail to send a chill of horror through every civilized community! This is the dark side of the picture. "A Life on the Ocean" has its sunshine as well as its storms—its pleasures as well as its pains—and the author has most happily and foreibly presented these various phases of life on the great deep, in the progress of the "OCEAN WANDERER."

The descriptions of the manners and customs of the Natives of the "far-off Isles of the Sea," among whom the author passed a portion of his eventful life, are full of interest. He carries the reader thro' the delightful groves where the banana and cocoanut grow—and anon takes him far away into the solitary forests of Tropical fruit, which are only to be found in the Isles of that clime "where summer reigns cternal"—passing in rapid succession before his mental vision a panorama of the most gorgeous picture in the world. Amid this delightful scenery, after all hope of ever gazing on the glorious stripes of his native land, or seeing the friends of his childhood again the author makes a discovery of the most startling character which changes the whole current of his adventurous career, "The OCEAN WANDERER finds himself at home among the natives."

There is a reckless daring in the life of the sailor which is unaccountable. He pursues hi

Fair Maiden! before you consent to a separation from your lover for a long voyage at sea to unable him to a teans of making your comfortable and happy, read the 'life of the "Ocean Wanderer." Count well the cost before the fatal rubicon is passed.

How may gallant ships have left our ports, never to be heard of again—leaving those who had friends on board to watch long and anxious for tidings of the missing vessel, while she was perhaps reat into a thousand pieces by the hurricane, typhoon, er some treacherous reef, far out in the sea-and her passengers and crew engulphed in the ocean depths! While fond hearts were living in the earnest, yet vain hope that absent friends would return home again, perhaps their bo nes were bleaching in the waters of the great deep! In these terrible disasters some are that absent friends would return home again, perhaps their bo nes were bleaching in the waters of the great deep! In these terrible disasters some are spared from an dden death to undergo the horrors of starvation and delirium on the fragments of the wreck, while others are east on some barren and inhospitable island, to end their days among savages or in a terrible so litude where no human foot had ever trod, and where no human voice was ever heard! The author of the "OCEAN WADDERER" vividly brings before his reader-some of these startling adventures and terrible realities.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Colds, Coughs, and

Hoarseness. BRIMFIELD, MASS., 20th Dec., 1855. DRIJ.C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarsenes, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EEEN KNIGHT, M. D.

A.B. MORTLEY, Esq., of Urrea, N. Y., writes: "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza. SPAINGFIELD, MISS. Feb. 7, 1856.
BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral is the best remedy we possess for the cure of whooping cough, croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people.

HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTREY, I.A., writes, 3d Jan., 1856:

"I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Peteral by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs;
less than one half the bottle made me completely well.
Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Dostor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis. Sir.: Your Cherry Peteral is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lumps for the last forty years.

HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant. last forty years. HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., Albion, Monroe Co., Iowa, writes, Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your Cherry Pectoral for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some human aid can reach; but even to those the Cherry Pectoral affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856. ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856.

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your Cherry Pectoral has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill; for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.

Your with cratitude and recard. Yours with gratitude and regard, ORLANDO SHELBY, of SHELBYVILLE.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these Pills have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win un-precedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their pene-trating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood. and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which and exper disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and daugerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures stant ated by men of such exalted position and character as to firbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my

In this disease, I can refer to the first and most respectable families in the State. In Female Diseases, I can refer to ladies who have been confined to bed for eight and ten years, and were restored (very often) in a few days. These things look strange, and some may not believe them true; but those who will write to me can be satisfied. I will refer them to persons who had fits of from five to twenty years' standing cured at once. I will refer them to ladies who avere confined to bed from five to fifteen years, and cured in a few days; cases of Paralysis cured in a very short time; Consumption (so called), where the parties were for months and years in bed, cured in a few weeks.

Depression of spirits and irritability of temper, etc., have, in many cases, defied the skill, heretofore, of the best medical practitioners in the world, and many cases have been abandoned as incurable.

Dr. J. Williams, Chemist and Pharmacentist, after studying closely the practice of Drs. Abernethy and J. Johnston, England, and observing the nature of the disease in all its stages, during a sojourn in the southern and western portions of the United States, where it prevails to a greater extent than elsewhere, procured from South America, certain roots and herbs, from which he prepared an "Elixir," which, after fifteen years' use in private practice, has proved itself more efficacious in the cure of Dyspepsy, than any medicine that has ever been prepared in any age or any clime, for the same purpose.

Having submitted it, with an explanation of its components, to a number of physicians of Philadelphia, among whom were the late Drs. Joseph Hartshorne and J. C. Morton, it has received their entire approval, and many of the Medical Faculty are now not only preseribing it for their patients, but are using it personally, and in their families. As a tonic it is unequalled, and its properties are of so invigorating af nature, that it is given with perfect safety and success to the most tender infants.

Dr. J. The dreadful sufferings I endured from Dyspepsy I cannot describe; but I am confident that without the use of your "Elixir," I should be in my grave. #### Rix Rax as a Legislator-He Attempts to Repeal the Code of Practice.

One of the most popular clauses of the new constitution, was one requiring Commissioners to be appointed to prepare a Code of Practice for the courts of this Commonwealth.

Three eminent legal gentlemen prepared the Code, with great labor and care, and it was adoptrepeal the Code of Practice. Afterwards, on the including quite a number of ladies. Journal (page 491):-

"Mr. McKee, from the Committee appointed to prepare and bring in the same, reported a bill to repeal the Code of Practice, which was read the first time, and the question being taken on ordering said bill to be read a second time, it was deciedd in the negative; and so the bill was reject-

The proposition to repeal the Code met with unusual for a bill of any sort to be defeated. Mr. McKEE flew in the face of the popular will of Kentucky, as he had before done with regard to the Common School system, and endeavored to destroy, without even a fair trial, one of the greatest legal reforms ever made in the State.

After the absolute requirement of the constitution, and the time and labor and expense incurred in the preparation of the Code, it was but just, on but kindness, a tention and good will from the the part of friend and foe, to give it a thorough trial, before a proposition should be brought forward for its repeal. But it seems that Mr. Mc. KEE's bump of destructiveness was so largely developed, that he must be killing something, and, as he could not destroy Common Schools, he concluded to try his hand on the Code-but luckily for the country, with the same lack of success in this as in the other experiment. Perhaps it was his hatred of the reforms-legal and constitutional-demanded by the people, or it may be that it technicalities of the old British system of pleadin room of the code.

It is difficult, however, to conceive of any reason which could influence a wise and prudent

ITS DENIAL. UNENVIABLE Netoriety.-We observe that some of the newspapers in other States are commenting upon the introduction of a bill into our Legislature to abolish the School System in Ken tucky. Mr. McKee, the mover of the measure seems to be gaining a notoriety which, we suppose, few men would desire. To be the leader of an ignorance party may be agreeable enough for barbarians, or persons half civilized; but men, professing the usual intelligence of American citizens, would, we should think, shun a station to which must be attached an everlasting odium .- Louisville Journal, 1843.

"Now don't throw away the old party. It's a trusty old piece; has done well in its day. Just pick the flint, and try it again, if it has flashed and snapped miserably once. The fault is not in the piece, but in had engineering. It's folly to pick up Know Nothingism and Black Republican They flash and snap all the time; and when they do go off, they hit the wrong object; besides dow of the kicking the holder over."-Lou. Dem.

We are rejoiced to know that our venerable friend of the Democrat, has no idea of throwing away the "good old party" to pick up Know Nothingism, or Black Republicanism. The truth is, we could not afford to give him up, notwithstanding he has snapped once, but are willing to "pick he flint and try it again." Mr. HARNEY's services to the Democratic party for a long series of yearss have been invaluable, and now that the Kansas question, upon which we have differed from him, is about to be ended, we hope to have his cordiat co-operation in the Democratic cause.

IJ An Indiana paper says that "the people will gather around Mr. English." Yes, folks will gather round him as they do round a convict upon the scaffold-to see him in his last agonies kick the vacant air .- Lou. Jour.

The foregoing is a fair specimen of the abuse being heaped upon Mr. English, by the Knownothing and Abolition press of the country. The offense of Mr. English, consists in having introduced into Congress a bill which settled the Kanras agitation, without a surrender of Southern

At the close of the national anthem, three cheers were proposed and given for the President of the United States, and, ere they had subsided, Mr. Buchanan appeared at the window over the hall door. He appeared to be in excellent health and spirits, and when the cheering with which he so little favor, that it was lost upon the second was greeted was so hushed that he could be heard reading of the bill-a stage at which it is very he addressed the assembled multitude in a clear and distinct voice, with his usual pleasing style of faithfully according to its terms, would have seeloquence.

GENTLEMEN: I thank you kindly for the compliment which you have paid me upon this occasion and I come forward cheerfully in response to your call; yet, not without fear at this late hour, and the able speeches you have heard, I shall be unable to interest and entertain you. I claim to be a man of action rather than of words, but yet I am usually able, upon proper occasions, to give a reason for the faith that is in me. I am always glad to meet my friends, and I confess not to be indifferent to their good opinion. I am gratified to meet you here to-night, because I hail friends, and feel that you sympathise with me, and rejoice at the action which has recently taken place in the Congress of the United States. I have given any open demonstrations of rejoicing, but I must confess to you, fellow-citizens, that have on several occasions since the passage of that and combinations, created rejoicing. National bill, felt an impulse to cry out "Glory!Halleluiah!" Why should we not rejoice at that action? What is Kansas that she should have caused all this turmoil and confusion throughout the land rious public places. On Saturday night last, the for the last four years? What is Kansas that she rejoicings were continued, and we copy from the should, during the last four months, have obstructed the general business of the country? What is Kansas that she should endanger the peace and happiness of this great and glorious confederacy of ours? Better, far better, that the foot of the white man should never be set upon the soil of Yes, fellow citizens, it would be better plause. that no white man should be allowed to enter Kansas, and that it should be turned over forever to the wild beasts and the savages of the forest better that the earth should open, and that the whole Territory, from one boundary to the other, should be swallowed up in eternal oblivion-than that the peace and harmony of this country should be endangered, or its best interests imperiled!—[Voices—"That's so!"] Then, fellow-citizens, we have cause for rejoicing that something has bedone to settle this question. The measure which has just passed ought to secure peace, and restore harmony among the different sections of the confederacy. I do not say that it will do it, for there are bad men who, for evil purposes and selfish ends, will oppose the wisest and best measures in order to accomplish their designs; and they may act thus in reference to this, as they have in reference to other just measures that have passed the Congress of the United States. Four years ago a great measure was enacted by Co which recognized a principle that ought to be dear to the heart of every American citizen, because it is a principle that underlies all our republican -a principle which is Godgiven-the right to self-government. And yet this important -which, if it had been carried into execution cured peace to the country on the question of slavery-has been seized upon by mad fanatics, who for political purposes, have raised the shout of "bleeding Kansas," and have kept this whole country in turmoil and confusion ever since. Fellow citizens, I hope the act which has just been passed may be the means of restoring peace and harmony to the Union. I shall rejoice if that be the result. I hope and believe that such will be the result, but, whether it be so or not, the effort which has been made is praise-worthy, and let us all indulge the hope that from yesterday we may date an era of good feeling in this cou may long continue to bless our happy land. And I have also personal reasons for rejoicing this matter. At home they have professed eternal white race to be constantly endangered for the terms. Allow course! At home they have professed eternal hostility to the extension of the institution of slavery; that Kansas should be a free State, though every man, woman and child therein wished it to be otherwise, and that under no circumstances were any more slave States to be admitted into the Union. That was substantially the platform upon which they stood in my own country and there is the sake of the few millons of negroes in this country. For mere party purposes we have seen them stultify themselves by voting to admit Kansas as a slave State, provided the people interested should decide in favor of it. How different this rom the position they have claimed state; it is the one which gave the largest majorto occupy before the people! Who can now believe in their sincerity? Are we to understand that they have abandoned their former position, or was their late act a mere political ruse? I suspect the latter. lin Kentucky, so long will Kentucky stand by Vir- anti-Democratic traps. It is not the first time catching Democrats. A few years ago an institu-tion sprung up in this country which endeavored to destroy and wipe out the Democratic party.—

Hunter, of Virginia, who was absent from All at once the enemies of Democracy became fearfully alarmed lest the Pope should come over and take this country; and they banded together with secret oaths, and assembled at night, when honestmen ought to have been in their beds; in barns, and out houses, and pit holes, and out-ofthe-way places, and they thought that by appealing to religious and social prejudices, and by grips and signs, and other tomfoolery, they would entrap a good many Democrats. Well, perhaps they did catch a few, more than they were able to keep, but they could not catch me; I never would join in any crusade against a man on account of place of his nativity or his religion. I avoided that rap, and I have also avoided this recent trap, and intend to avoid all traps of a similar nature, and I advise you all to do likewise. I was raised in the Western country; I have seen a good of the wilderness and know something about hunting. I am pretty will up to all sorts of traps in the forest .s the time that I have run the "varmint" into his hole in a hollow-three, or in the ground; and when I got him treed, as we call it in the West, I could always tell whether it was fur or hair that I was after. I could tell what the animal was by the signs. Now, when the Black Republi-cans set this last trap, and invited me to come into it I said to myself, I beg to be excused. I had no objection to side along up near enough the entrance to look into it and see what the signs were;

but that was as far as I would go.

The signs did not suit me. I saw neither fur nor hair, but any quantity of wool; and then there was an odor not at all agreeable to my olfactories. the clerk, "kiss-me-quick."—Boston Bee. It was long, lean, lank, candaverous, white-livered, and holors hearted. low-hearted. [Applause.] I knew that was no place for me, and that I never could become a member of the Republican household. I never could act with men so much governed by hatred for one portion of their fellow-citizens, and who would, I fear, strike down one entire section of this country, if they only had the power to do recomend it to al those who are similary afflicted."

Fellow-citizens, I claim to belong to a national

Although a citizen of a free State; although born in a free State; although having sympathy with the institutions of the free States yet at the same time I can recognize and respect the rights and the institutions of other States; and I am just as ready to stand up to the last to vindicate the rights of the people of the South, as I am to vindicate the rights of the people of my own section. [Cheers.] I tell you, fellow-citizens, it will be a sad day for this country if this Black Republican party should ever come into power. I do not pretend to say but that many who belong to that party are actuated by pure motives: I know that many of them are, but they are mistaken as to what would be the effect of their doctrines when carried out. But they never can be carried out in full, because the God of nature intended that they should not be. They never can make a black man anything else than a black They never can elevate the black race to CLERK COUNTY COURT, ANDERSON CO. an equality with the white race. Never by my vote or by my act, will I aid them in attempting to do it. I never want to see the day come in this country when the children of the black man shall go into the school-house and sit side by side with the children of the white man. I never want to see the day co ne in this country when the black man shall step up to the polls, upon terms of equality with the white man and deposit his vote. I never want to see the day come in this country when the black man shall go into the jury box and sit in judgment upon the rights, the pro perty, or the life of the white man. [Cries of 'never!" "never!"] These things, fellow-citizens, I do not want to see. These things I am ready to resist to the utmost of my ability. I want to see no such doctrines as these carried out in this happy republic of ours. I do not believe and there are disadvantages about it. It is best that each section and each State of the Union should be allowed to judge as to this matter for itself. After the band had left the Executive Mansion, the cannoniers took their field piece to the Central Market Place, and there fired a national salute of thirty-two guns. The new State of Kansas adds another star to the star-spangled banner of freedom, and another gun to the Union salute. Everything passed off peaceably and quietly, and there was evidently a hearty delight that this longvexed question, was banished from the hall of Congress. Men from the cold forests of Maine and from the orange groves of Florida-from the Golden Gate of the Pasific and from the populous cities of the Atlantic-all joined in rejoicing that the Kansas question has been settled, and the Union relieved from the last and most dangerous agitation within its existence.

Assisting Nature.—It is a well established fact, that although nature cannot be FORCED, she can be assisted. This is peculiarly the case in all those diseases caused by blood or coagulated lympth setting under the skin, as generally happens after a bruise or sprain. By using some good penetrating rubifacient, such as BRAGG'S ARCTIC LINIMENT, nature is stimulated and assisted to take up and remove the deposit of lymph and blood, and an immediate cure is effected. Bragg's ARCTIC LINIMENT is for fale by all respectable Druggists throughout the country.

any medicine that has ever been prepared in any age or any clime, for the same purpose.

Having submitted it, with an explanation of its components, to a number of physicians of Philadelphia, among whom were the late Drs. Joseph Hartshorne and J. C. Morton, it has received their entire approval, and many of the Medical Faculty are now not only prescribing it for their patients, but are using it personally, and in their families. As a tonic it is unequalled, and its properties are of so invigorating a nature, that it is given with perfect safety and success to the most tender infants.

The "Elixir" is very gradual, but certain in its action upon the organs of digestion, the increased secretions of the liver, pancreas and mucous membrane of the stomach, and requires that only one dose be taken in twenty-four hours; for confirmed Dyspepsy can only be cured by GRADUALLY restoring the organs of digestion to a healthy state. The great success met with in carring the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsy, accompanied sometimes with a high grade of hypochondriasis, has established the most unbounded confidence in the curative properties of this "Elixir," in corroboration of which, read the following testimonials:—

Dr. J. WILLIAMS—Dear Sir:—For fifteen years pre-ious to 1834, I suffered so much from Dyspepsy, that became completely prostrated, both in mind and ody, and at length became so weakened, I could not bedy, and at length became so weakened, I could not attend to my business, and was sinking into a decline, and it was believed I never could recover; the best medical aid was procured for me and every means resorted to without any relief, till I was adviscated to use your "Elixir," and from the time I began taking it, I gradually improved till I was completely restored to health. The dreadful sufferings I endured from Dyspersy I cannot describe; but I am confident that without the use of your "Elixir," I should be in my grave. I assert that I solemely believe your "Elixir" has saved me from an early death. I continue now in the enjoyment of most excellent health.

FRANGIPANNI SACHELS. To lay in drawers and perfume clothing, at Dr. MILLS Drug Store.

Thus far we have endeavored to ascertain the fundamental principles underlying the systems of both State and Federal Government in this coun-We found the confederation of the states, firmly planted upon this basis,—the union of States, sovereign, independent, and free within their respective limits to establish and maintain their local, internal, and domestic institutions, and externally equal in federal rights, and mutual We have also shown that the change from a confederation to the constitution contemplated no radical inroad upon the rights and powers reserved to the State and the people. The Constitution simply embraced, a wider range of delegated powers, and a broader sphere for their administrative exercise. It was adopted "in order to form a more perfect Union,"—to promote the general welfare and to secure to all "the blessings of liberty." The whole history of the times as well as the instrument itself, authoritatively repel the idea that a new central government was ushered into existence, clothed with any general inherent rights of sovereignty. The exercise of all its functions was liable to modification or recal by the sovereign people.

It is settled by the highest tribunal of the country, itself a co-ordinate branch of the general government, that "the United States (i. e the government) have no constitutional capacity to exercise municipal jurisdiction, sovereignty or eminent domain, within the limits of a State or elsewhere except in cases where it is delegated, and the Court denies the faculty of the federal government to add to its powers by treaty or The Government then in the acquisition of territory, acquires no sovereignty, and adds nothing to its constitutional capacity for exercising it. In acquiring, holding and disposing of any such territory, it is a simple trustee, sub-ject to all the limitations of the constitution, and to all the reservations of personal, political, and property rights therein to the people.

We have also shown by these cotemporaneous expositions of eminent men, that if such territory could be lawfully acquired by treaty, purchase, conquest or otherwise, the Congress possessed no ndless power of legislation in cases where they had as early as 1804 resorted to its dangerous as-sumption. This is the point where the claim of 'the general sovereignty which exists in the Gov ernment," began to be exercised in territory outside the original limits of the United States or of the separate States. We therefore propose to examine the constitutional grounds for such assumption, the more especially as the system thus initiated finally developed "the enormities to-wards which such precedents travel."

Upon this branch of our subject we are free to confess that a great conflict of opinion has hereto-fore obtained in our country. But the acknow, ledged fact, that statesmen and jurists, politicians and judges have been unable to agree in lodging the legislative control of territory, in its sover-eign political sense, upon any distinctive clause of the constitution, speaks forcibly against the existence of the power claimed. The concise manner in which the delegations of power are all enunciated in that instrument, and the felicious language uniformly employed in defining the intended grant, alike demand for the despotic power claimed, a delegation in apt, specific terms .-May not its absence be accounted for, from the settled conviction of the convention, that the people of original States possessed no sovereign egislative power over territories beyond their limits which they could properly delegate? Did they not then recognize in the people of such ter-ritory the same rights they had claimed for them-

The advocates of the irresponsible power claim. ed for Congress, have based it, as occasion seemed to require upon various grounds:-upon the treaty making power, -upon the general rights of sovereignty in the government, upon the inker-ent right of sovereign legislation in the constitution, and by it carried into the territories; --upon We appeal to the Court for relief against the disand regulations, etc," and finally upon the power of Congress to admit new States into the Union. In an explorer of Law States into the Union. In an early case (I Pet. 511) the Supreme Court, not to be outdone in the breadth of its basis for the power, says: "In legislating for them (the territories) Congress evanishes the continuents." Of all these different derivations of the nower of Congress to govern the territories, but two or three are now insisted upon. The principal battle has been fought over the "regulation clause." confess that in looking at the origin of this clause, at the opinion of the statesmen who suggested and the opinion of the statesmen who suggested and the opinion of the statesmen who suggested and per. This may be followed by the fare for break
G. E. Knowles, the condition of the statesmen who suggested and opinion o things then existing, and the pressure of congressional, assumptions of power under the confederation, then to be avoided, we have long believed that this clause only applied to the territory as common property:-that the right "to despose of being coextensive with the right to regulate, the political rights of the citizens located there, that the right, whatever it was, could be exert as well in a State where any public land was form as in a territory;—and consequently could not be a subject to the consideration of the people. It is thought that something to suit the taste Many others were more or less of every man who is inclined to vote against the condinance, will be gotten up to a strength, whatever it was, could be exert as a subject to the condinance, will be gotten up to a subject to the condinance and the condinance are the condinance and the condinance are the condinance and the condinance are the extended to the property rights, political rights, or domestic institutions of the people of either State or territory.

The day of the election preme Court of the United States to settle this questio vexata. It is true that the decisions of that tribunal exhibit verv sensibly, the operation of the general law of progress, not for the enlargeut the diminution of both the sources and the range of the Congressional power claimed.—
That Court is 1, Pet. 542, say. "In the meantime new COALITION HORSE. TOPPEL IN Florida continues to be a Territory of the United States, governed by that clause of the Constitution which empowers Congress to make all need-ful rules, etc." Perhaps the power of governing a territory belonging to the United States, which has not, by becoming a State, acquired the means of self-government, may result necessarily from the facts, that it is not within the jurisdiction of any particular State, and is within the power and jurisdiction of the United States. The right to govern may be the inevitable consequence of the Lecompton call's horn right to acquire territory. Whichever may be the source from which the power is derived, the Connect and so the connect and so possession of it is unquestionable."

In the case of Dred Scott vs. Sandford recently decided by this same Court, the above decision is narrowed down in its amplitude to the right to acquire territory. The Court say, "The Dower stands firmly on the latter alternative, put Fred Bouglas' sheet, baked with swift nigger's by the Court, that is, as the inevitable consequence of the right to acquire territory." After an elaborate examination of "the regulation clause," the court say of it: "It applied only to the pro perty which the States held in common at that Blacksmiths' aprons, gutta percha gravy. time, and has no reference whatever to any tory or other property which the new sovereignty might afterwards itself acquire. * * Whether Free nigger shirt-tails, Topeka cut. Consequently, the power which Congress may have lawfully exercised in this ter-, while it remained under a terri torial government, and which may have been sanctioned by judicial decision, can furnish no justification and no argument to support a similar exercise of power over territory afterwards ac quired by the Federal Government."

Thus it seems that this sovereign power of establishing and operating territorial Governments, has been crushed inward by judicial decision, and made finally to rest upon a power im-plied in the clause "new States may be admitted by the Congress into the Union," etc. We say to this clause, because in the same decision the Court distinctly rest it there. We are thus judicially relieved from a more extended review of all other shifting sources of this boundless power. "The sovereign Congress" will no longer claim to exercise the combined powers of the General and State Governments upon any basis thus repudiated. "The general right of sovereignty which exists in the Government" will fail Cour.

"The inherent soverof the Constitution" will no longer be made a beast of burden toting the regalia of power and the cumbrous machinery of unlimited control and the cumbrous machinery of "acquiring and then governing" a territory, as by injured number 40 or more, this new view, Congress becomes the succedaneum.

That power is pleigle distributions of the wounded are States. That power is plainly given,—and if a new State is admitted, it needs no further legislaion by Congress, because the Constitution itself defines the relative rights and powers, and duties of the State, and the citizens of the State, and the General Government." This language is clear, pointed and unmistakable in its import.

It is followed by the further declaration that Ohio—injured about the spine, but it is thought "The power exercised by Congress to acquire not dan territory and establish a Government there, according to its own unlimited discretion, was jured at viewed with great jealousy by the leading states-men of the day." The Court then cite approv-ingly the opinion of Madison, "that the acquisiof the Northwestern Territory, by the confederated States, by the cession of Virginia, and the establishment of a government there was an exercise of power not warranted by the articles of the confederation, and dangerous to the liberties of the people, and he urges the adoption of the Constitution as a security and safeguard against such an exercise of power."

The opinion of the Court, upon this point, thus expressed and fortified, presents a strong coastitutional objection to territorial acquisition, as such, under any expressed or implied power, and if the opinion had ended here, our self imposed task would never, perhaps, have been undertaken.— But inasmu h as the Court proceed in this same connection to concede this very power of acquisi-tion to Congress under the power to expand the territory of the United States by the admission of new States, and the discretionary power of governing such territories ad interium or until ripe for admission,—and forasmuch as the Court bases the concession of such power in Congress, not upon the Constitutional power to admit new States, but upon a construction of this power alleged to have been given "by all the departments of the Government," as to the acquisition of territory unfit for admission at the time; and since the Court say ex necessitate rei the territory must be governed, and that "it was acquired by the exercise of this discretion, and it must be held and governed in like manner until it is fitted to be a State," and the Court finally distinctly announcing" that it was a question for thepolitical department of the government and not the judicial," we feel at perfect liberty to examine this novel basis for the sovereign power of Congress over the territories, or in other words, for governing them in head and arm; bruised, but not dangerously.

Without the slightest attempt to show either logically or analogically, any necessary connection between the two powers, or that the implied power was at all necessary to the exercise of the specifically granted power; we are gravely told, that such has been the construction "by all the Departments of the Government." This method of examining questions arguendo is only equalled by that of Lord Mansfield, as put by Junius: "The decision must be legal because the Court was competent." ously, we question whether there ever was an act of a urpation by a Government, without such constructive power being claimed for its exercise CURRENTE CALAMO.

The accident occured to the Cincinnati express many voters as possible at the Topeka polls. The due here at 6:30, A. M. It was somewhat behind hotel is to be thrown open on the day of the elec- at Whitesboro', and was coming at a high rate of speed when it met on the Saquoit creek bridge the Utica accompodation train for the West, each on its own track. The engines crossed the bridge but as the passenger ears of the express and the freight ears of the accommodation train came up on it, the north side gave way, precipitating the freight cars into the creek, and piling the passenger cars one above the other, splintering platform and seats to stoms as the cars struck the abutment. The p rsons injured were all on the express train.

The passenger ear on the accommodation did not reach the bridge. Different stories are told as to the cause of the accident. One is, that an axle of the express bagrage car broke as it reached the bridge, and thus hrew the trains together. The other attributes e easualty to the rottenness of the timbers of the Major Priest, the jocal superintendent of the road, happened to be on the accomodation train, and he at once dispatched a sufficient number of men to the relief of the sufferers. A large number of the wounded were immediately brought to this city and taken to Brazg's Hotel, the Macgregor House, the Northern Hotel and the Railroad Others were eared for at Whitesbore.'-Physicians were summoned, and everything was done that was possible to relieve the sufferings of ASSIAMED OF THEIR NAME. The snake easts its skin once a year, but it is a serpent still. The donkey borrowed the lien's hide, but the nature of the animal remained the same. The old Federal party has changed its name nearly as often as the moon changes her face, but its nature and character is unalterable. It is now and ever "the peace party in war, the war party in peace; always on the side of the enemies of our country, always overflowing with sympathy for our fees always hatching treason, schism, rebellion, and on. The principles and practices of this party become so obvious and abhorrent to the people of the United States, that the leaders are ompelled to adopt a new designation every two or three years. In this way they succeed in throwing dust enough in the eyes of their followers to prevent an open stampede, or fatal disruption. The party in this city has recently undergone another transformation, not of principle, for it has one except in proportion to its interest in the poils, but of name. It comes smirking out of its recent obscurity in an entire new dress, under a fresh mask, calling itself "the people's party"—and asks the voters to "go it blind" in support of "the people's ticket." The trick will fail—it has been tried too often.—I'hil. Argus.

MATURE REFLECTION .- A rather plain spoken clergyman once took for his text this passage in "I said in my haste, all men are liars."

Looking up, apparently as if he saw the Psalmist stand immediately before him, he said: "You said so in your haste, did you, David? Well, if you had been here, you might have said it after muture reflection."

BRAGG'S ARCTIC LINIMENT

THIS incomparable Liniment, upon which the THIS incomparable Liniment, upon which the great mass of the afflicted of all lands now rely for relief from the pangs of Rheumatism, Neuralgea, Gout, Erysipelas, Cancer, Scrofula, Sprains, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, and all cutaneous diseases, is rapidly superseding all similar preparations. The proprietors give for the encouragement of sufferers, the following memorandum of a few of the wonderful cures effected by it during the past few months. Certificates from the parties named are in the possession of the proprietors, but their length precludes the publication of all but a few.

One Bottle Triumphant.

Mrs. Moffitt, No. 345 Morgan Street, St. Louis, having suffered for three years with Rheumatism; and tried many preparations without effect, was cured by one fifty cent bottle of Arctic Liniment. Out of Purgatory.

Henry Davis, Mound street, St. Louis, who says he was "suffering the pangs of purgatory" with neuralgia, for months, was cured by three or four applications of the Arctic Limment. Pity the Little Children.

A little daughter of Mrs. Lee, residing on Lake street, Chicago, was scalded all over by the upsetting of a kettle of boiling water. The Arctic Liniment was applied according to the directions, and the fire was instantly extracted, and in a few days the little sufferer was well.

Restored to Beauty.

Mrs. George K. Tyler. Canal Street, N. O., had long suffered from a painful and disfiguring eruption on the face, and by the use of one bottle of the Lini-ment was cured, and restored to her original beauty. A Horrible Tumor.

Eugene Mallory, Natchez, was three years the vic-tim of a horrible tumor on the neck, which resisted all remedies until he tried the Arctic Liniment. Three bottles cured him in a few weeks. Wonderful Cure!

Mrs. Bedford, Mobile, was confined to her couch for three years with numb palsy, and after being in despair from the failure of all other remedies, was cured by the Arcie Liniment, in a little over a month.

An Explosion.

sume my business.
HENRY HAVERSKILL,

The Hlind See:

Webster City, lowa, Nov. 9, 1857.

Dr. A. G. Bragg—Dear Sir: For more than three years I had been afflicted with inflamed eyes in an aggravated degree, and tried various Physicians, and several nostrums, to no effect; I was induced by Dr. Baum to try the Arctic Liniment, and in two months was nearly well. My little daughter was afflicted in the same manner for the same time, and during a portion of the time was entirely blind in one eye. I applied your valuable Liniment, and her eyes are now perfectly sound. Thus have I, with one two-bit bottle, oured my daughter's eyes and my own, besides curing the Kheumatism in my back. I would not be without your valuable remedy in my house.

Very truly,

Webster City, Iowa, Nov. 9, 1857,
I hereby certify that I am real convicted in the construction. The Blind See!

WM. RUSSELL:

WEBSTER CITY, Iowa. Nov. 9, 1857.

I hereby certify, that I am well acquainted with Wm. Russell, and with the astonishing cures he mentions, and know his statement to be strictly true.

J.J. WADSWORTH, P. M., Webster City.

Good for Animals.

This invaluable Liniment is also equally efficatious in curing the diseases of animals, as witness the following certificate: Messrs, J. & A. Arnot, and Lynch, Arnot & Co., keep the two largest livery stables in the West, and are generally known throughout the United States.

Caution.

Many Druggists, having old Liniments on hand will try to sell them to you as the best, but do you positively refuse to purchase them. Ask for "BRAGG'S ARCTIC LINIMENT." and take no other. Liberal Proposition.

The proprietors agree to furnish each purchaser of a dollar bottle, with a free subscription to the U.S. Journal, for one year. This is one of the best N.Y. illustrated papers. The Arctic Liniment is put up in 25 cent, 50 cent, and $1 bottles. The 50 cent and $1 bottles contain 50 and 100 per cent. more Liniment in proportion to their cost, and are the cheapest. For sale by BRAGG & BURROWES, Sole Proprietors, St. Louis, Mo. An agent is wanted in every town and village. Applications must always be accompanied by responsible references.

Meeting with great success among them I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medician virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

Caution Notice.

PERSONS living at a distance should be extremely cautions of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets. The country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them. Capital Prizes of from $40,000 head their schemes—with tickets at One Bollar. $100,000 Capital prizes are offered, tickets $5. All such, in every instance, are frauds: and if money is sent to them for tickets, it is so much thrown away, without the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. PLAN OF THE LOTTERY.

The Numbers from 1 to 50,000, corresponding with those Numbers on the Tickets printed on separate slips of paper, are encircled with small tin tubes and placed in one wheel.

The first 457 Prizes, similarly printed and encircled, are placed in another wheel. The wheels are then revolved, and a number is drawn from the wheel of Numbers, and at the same time a Prize is drawn from the other wheel. The Number and Prize drawn out are opened and exhibited to the audience and registered by the Commissioners; the Prize being placed against the Number drawn. This operation is repeated until all the Prizes are drawn out. Approximation Prizes .- The two preceed-

Approximation Prizes.—The two preceeding and the two succeeding Numbers to those drawing the first 7 Prizes will be entitled to the 28 Approximation Prizes. For example: If Ticket Ne. 1250 draws the $70,000 Prize, those Tickets numbered 11248, 11249, 11251, 11252, will each be entitled to $400. If Ticket No. 550 draws the $30,000 Prize, those Tickets numbered 548, 549, 551, 552, will each be entitled to $300, and so on according to the above scheme. The 5,000 Prizes of $20 will be determined by the last figure of the Number that draws the $70,000 Prize ends with No. 1, then all the Tickets where the number ends in 1, will be entitled to $20. If the Number ends with No. 2, then all the Tickets where the Number ends in 2 will be entitled to $20, and so on to 0.

TO ALL PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH Sexual Diseases, such as Spermatorrhosa, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhosa. Gleet, Syphilis, the Vice of Onanism, or Self Abuse, etc.

The Howard Association, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual disease, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate viettims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Sergeon, as a Charitable act worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give Medical Advice Gratis, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, tage, occupation, habits of life, etc., and in cases of extreme poverty. to furnish Medicines Free of Charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment. The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevound effort, have been of great benefit to the afflictel, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important but much despised cause.

Just Published by the Association, a Report on Spermatorrhosa, or Seminal Weakness, the Vice of Onanism, Misturbution or Self Abuse and other Discasses of the Sexual Organs, by the Consulting Surgeon which will be sent by mail, (in a sealed letter envious), Free of Charge, on receipt of Two Stamps for postage.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK invalids, Fathers, Motners, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues. FOR THE CURE OF Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSEURG, PA., May 1, 1856.

DR. J. C. Aver. Sir: I have been repeatedly exred of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomaca, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,

Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

DEPARMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1880.

Sir: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital ractice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious discusses so obtinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Dr. Ayer. Your Pills are the perfection of medicine.
They have done my wife more good than I can tell you.
She had been sick and pining away for manths. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterward; cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

end for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the aubite and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasancest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Pejepts should have if in store against the insidious enemy, that steads upon them unprepared.
